

The Herald and News

H. H. H. H. H.

The retirement of George R. Koester from the lucrative office of collector of internal revenue for the district of South Carolina owing to the failure of the senate to confirm his nomination is an impressive lesson in the far reaching results of acts not thought especially harmful or wrong at the time of their commission. Nobody thought anything of Geo. Koester's part in the Gascoyne lynchings at the time it occurred, but ten years later it rises up to influence the republican majority in the United States senate and deprives Koester of about the best federal office in the State. We do not admire Koester's politics, but it looks like a pretty rough deal for him to get fired out of a good office, the duties of which he is said to have been discharging in a capable manner, on account of an act which public sentiment in this State has never blamed him for and does not blame him for now.—Spartanburg Journal.

We agree with the Journal. The man who opposed Koester's confirmation has little ground upon which to base a fight if it was made for the reason stated. But politics is a queer sort of thing and the man who pretends to be your friend today may fight you to the death tomorrow.

The following is from the Sumter Herald and is evidence of how Col. Johnstone is being headway in his race for the Senate:

The first speaker—and by odds the best—was Col. George Johnstone, of Newberry, and of all the candidates he probably made most votes. Colonel Johnstone is an orator who goes to the bottom of things. He is clear, logical, and eloquent. Such a man in the Senate would compel the admiration of all who heard him. He discussed tariff reform, the trusts, and the Philippine question ably and instructively.

The county campaign will open tomorrow at Pomaria. We trust it will be a pleasant canvas of the county. There are now about fifty candidates in the race for the various positions to be filled.

St. Paul's Items.

We are having very warm weather. The thermometer registered 105 degrees the past few days.

Watermelons are beginning to ripen. T. J. W. can come and help eat melons and later grapes, both of which will be plentiful.

The St. Paul's school opened this morning its summer term with Prof. Hayne Wedeman teacher.

Misses Georgia Schuppert, Jessie Moseley and Lillie Mae Russell, of Prosperity, are visiting Miss Annie Mae Bedenbaugh.

Our dear old pastor was sick and unable to preach for us yesterday. A request was received from him that Mr. T. B. Epting, a young theological student and member of his church should supply his pulpit, which he did.

Some of the sick in our community have improved, others are no better.

Mrs. Margaret Epting will return to her home in Newberry tomorrow, having spent a few weeks in the lower part of the county with her daughter and grandchildren.

In my last letter I said Mrs. Epting was in her 84th year, but instead she is in her 85th year, and has seen her fifth generation. On Sunday she listened to her great grandchild preach, a thing that don't often happen.

Fairview Notes.

Hot, dry and dusty. Mr. S. L. Fulmer and family, of Lexington, visited the family Mr. L. D. Morris last Saturday.

Mr. P. C. Fulmer, of Columbia, has been visiting relatives and friends in this community.

School at Fairview will open Monday, July 14, with Mr. J. I. Bedenbaugh as teacher.

B. R. Long & Bros. will move their saw mill on Mr. J. A. Baker's place in a few days where they will finish sawing his timber.

Ervin Long & Bros. will move their saw mill near the Bo-Bo bridge in a few weeks.

Mr. Christie Summey will move his shingle mill near Pinner Wood's Church in a few days.

A tenant house on Mr. Mason Lomnick's place were destroyed by fire last Wednesday night.

We had a very hard storm on last Monday evening which did much damage to crops, blowing down a tree on Mr. L. D. Morris' smoke house and smashing it into pieces.

We had the pleasure of attending communion services at Mt. Olivet on last Sunday and hearing an interesting sermon delivered by Rev. P. H. E. Derick.

A good many people are expected to be present at Children's Day services next Saturday at Bethel.

Crops in this section are looking very well to the dry weather; if we could get a good rain we think a good crop would be gathered.

Macedonia and Holy Trinity Churches are talking of having a joint picnic. I remain, with best wishes,

July 11, 1902. J. M. M.

Week End Notes.

For the summer months the Southern Railroad has announced week end rates as follows for the round trip: To Spartanburg and Greenville, $2; to Charleston, $4.50. Tickets sold Saturday mornings, evenings and Sunday mornings. Good to leave destination any time Monday.

Foley's Kidney Cure purifies the blood by straining out impurities and tones up the whole system. Cures kidney troubles. Glider & Weeks.

Find fault and you lose faultlessness.

Two months' treatment. I was troubled with kidney complaint for about two years. I used A. R. Davis' of Mr. St. Paul's, but two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure effected a permanent cure. Glider & Weeks.

You can't educate brains into a boy's head.

When Other Medicines Have Failed. Take Foley's Kidney Cure. It has cured when everything else has disappointed. Glider & Weeks.

The blush comes off the honeymoon about the time it comes off the bride.

A. R. Bass, of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night and had severe backache and pains in the kidneys. Was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure. Glider & Weeks.

When a woman is dead sure it is the cat down stairs and not a burglar, she wants her husband to go down stairs and see about it so she can tell him afterward how brave he is.

No False Claims. The proprietors of Foley's Kidney Cure do not advertise this as a 'sure cure for consumption'. They do not claim it will cure this dread complaint in advanced cases, but do positively assert that it will cure in the earlier stages and never fails to give comfort and relief in the worst cases. Foley's Kidney Cure is without doubt the greatest throat and lung remedy. Refuse substitutes. Glider & Weeks.
